This is how the SOBs show our Club Pride

The weather was warm and windy for our campout at Emerald Desert RV Resort in Palm Desert. Jan and Leo Isbel were our Trailbosses and they planned a terrific weekend for all. Our guests were Bobbie Caswell and Mel Thompson. Campers in attendance were: the Clays, Earnests, Goetjens, Isbels, Laisys, Langhams, Moores, Schmidts, Schmokers, Schultzs, and Wulterins.

On Thursday, campers arrived, set up camp, and socialized at various campsites. Later the Clays, Goetjens, Isbels, Laisys, Schmidts, Schmokers, Wulterins, and Bobbie and Mel went to "Billy Reeds" restaurant. The food was delicious and some of us splurged and had dessert. The other campers stayed back and barbequed at their sites.

On Friday, a few of us went to breakfast or the local casino. In the afternoon some played games, went for walks, took naps(me), or gathered at campsites to visit. Happy hour started at 5:00 and dinner included ham, coleslaw, potato salad, three bean salad, and dessert was a variety of cookies all supplied by our trail bosses. After dinner, some gathered to play games in the clubhouse.

On Saturday the Isbels hosted our breakfast potluck with beverages, scrambled eggs, and biscuits and gravy. Other campers brought fruit, egg taquitos, green pepper egg casserole, donut holes, banana bread, coffee cake, and much more. At 11:00 the SOBs had our monthly meeting. There were many discussions (see minutes) but the main motion was changing how the trailbosses are chosen for the campouts. The majority approved the motion, a committee will develop a spreadsheet method with rules, and send it out via e-mail for all members to review. It will be discussed and voted on at June's meeting. At 1:00 we enjoyed appetizers brought by all campers. Then we played "Chase the Ace" for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd prizes with a small audience looking on in the finals. By dinnertime we were enjoying spaghetti, green salad, breadsticks, coleslaw, and dessert, which was a choice of 2 cakes and cheesecake. Some of us tried all of them. After dinner some retired to their rigs and others stayed in the clubroom to play games.

On Sunday, we had a continental breakfast and then it was time to say good-bye until the June Campout at Pala Casino RV Resort. Many thanks to the Jan and Leo for a wonderful campout!
